Phronesis

Phronesis was there once again. Bigger, better and stronger leaving an impact with everyone. The fun, the fervor, the magic all come back for all to have a gala time. The charm weaved its magic once more.

Phronesis was formally inaugurated by Prof. Ramesh Behl, Honorable Director IMI Bhubaneswar. He addressed the vivacious gathering with his words of wisdom. Participants came in from across the country including Welingkar Institute of Management, KIIT University, IIIT Bhubaneswar and many others. The activities started with the flagship event "The Big Deal" (Ad Mad competition) followed by "IPL Auction" (Money ball), "Walk of Fame" (Ramp Walk), "Crash IMI" (Photography event) and many others. There were also various online events like "Unleash with a Flash" (photography event).

IPL Auction saw the maximum participation with some aggressive bidding and...

“A mind that is stretched by a new experience can never go back to its old dimensions”

-Oliver Holmes

A usual day starts with a bright sunshine and ends with a soothing moonlight, what we have in between is what we call experience. I have a great tendency to expose myself to new heights, with greater enthusiasm, so that I can make most out of my experience.

After 4 years of graduation degree and 7 month job in a consultancy firm, I had arrived at IMI carrying a lot of expectations and ambitions for my future and from the very first day of orientation I got a glimpse of what I am going to become in next 2 years. I met guys with lot of...

Student, PGDM 2015-17

It all started with smiling introduction. Approaching handshakes. Enthusiastic settlements. Unwanted preparations for a new life. Unknown lunch timings. Formal entries in log books. Formal dressing, legitimate registration, always missing documents, promises for late submission. But the day wasn't over. Making friends was still unfinished. Impaired singular people. Gathered. Looking out to start a fresh. Well there were snacks at evening to make everyone come downstairs. Consequently creating the opportunity to talk to each other. There it was with a little uncertainty we talked. We knew each other. The day wasn't over yet. The warden, our new Guardian, he knew what we...

Student, PGDM 2015-17

Six pm in the evening my flight landed at Bhubaneswar Airport. A strange feeling gripped me. The thought that I had in my mind was that my world had already begun to change as within a matter of four hours I was in a part of the country which I had never seen or experienced before.

The moment I reached IMI Bhubaneswar, I was spellbound to see the lush green campus. It brought a big smile on my face because the environment was so serene and calm, with cool breeze blowing throughout the day which could take away all the tension from one's mind. Seldom do you get to feel the wind in your hair in Lucknow, my home town. This made me...
