Course Introduction: Organizational effectiveness depends largely on its ability to manage the human behaviour. A proper understanding of organizational dynamics and the various management concepts is essential for every manager. The objective of this paper is to familiarize the students with basic management concepts and behavioural processes that are at work in an organization.

Course Objectives: Upon completion of this course, the students should be able to:

- List the major challenges and opportunities for managers to use OB concepts
- Explain how major personality attributes predict behavior at work
- Explain relationship between attitudes and job satisfaction
- Explain how perception affects the decision making process
- Understand group dynamics, and specifically the way individuals within a group work together to attain certain goals
- Describe and apply the principles of organizational behavior to develop effective relationships with others in workplace

Course Pedagogy: A number of pedagogical techniques will be used to provide students with insights into the theoretical foundations of human behaviour in organizational context. These will include the judicious mix of lectures, case analysis & discussion, article reviews, role plays, assignments & presentations by the students.
