Course Introduction:

Retail is one of the omni-present establishments in Indian commercial landscape. The sheer enormity of the number of retail outlets functioning across India, the diversity of the formats, the depth and width of the product assortments they offer, and the number of customers they satisfy makes for a grand lesson in various aspects of management skills. According to a KPMG study, the Indian retail sector's overall size is estimated to be US $ 534 billion in 2013-14 with a CAGR of 12-13%, which would be worth US $ 948 billion in 2018-19. In view of such prospects for skilled manpower in the area of Retail, this course intends to take a holistic perspective of management of retail organization and covers diverse functional requirements.

Course Objectives:

- To gain in-depth conceptual understanding of functional domains.
- To sensitize students to the demands of organized retail sector.
- To make the students aware and develop competencies for retail supply chain management (R-SCM).
- To prepare students to assume managerial mantle in retail sector.

Course Pedagogy:

The sessions will be a blend of interactive lectures and case analysis. Fieldwork, in the nature of a major project will form an essential ingredient in the learning curve.
